

Halina W. Hale, Ph.D. is a licensed psychologist who has been in private practice in Huntsville since 1991. Before entering private practice, Dr. Hale was the Clinical Director of the Huntsville Madison County Mental Health Center. Dr. Hale received her Masters and Doctoral degrees from Virginia Tech. She completed an internship with a focus on behavioral medicine at the Brockton, Massachusetts VAMC and the Lahey Clinic Medical Center. Dr. Hale has served as President of the Association of Licensed Psychologists in Alabama and the North Alabama Association of Licensed Psychologists. She has served on the ethics committee of the Alabama Psychological Association. Dr. Hale is past president of the Board of Directors of Greengate School, a private school for children with learning differences. Dr. Hale continues to conduct assessments for children, adolescents, and adults who experience learning, attention, and executive function difficulties. Dr. Hale has worked with physicians privately and through the Alabama Physician Health Program and understands some of the unique challenges faced by physicians as they seek services in the community where they practice. Dr. Hale enjoys working with adults who are experiencing symptoms of anxiety or depression, and those who are having normal reactions to difficult circumstances or transitions. During the COVID – 19 pandemic, Dr. Hale has worked almost exclusively using a HIPAA compliant telehealth platform. She has found her patients appreciate the convenience, safety, and privacy that allows. To speak with Dr. Hale, or to schedule an appointment, please call 256-533-5792.
